CLASSROOM Management

- During the first week of school, students will be collaborating with each other and Ms. Chris to set official classroom rules and expectations. When this is complete she will send home a contract for your child and you to sign to confirm understanding and agreeance.
- I work with a color system to help manage the classroom and this system will work based off of the class rules we create.
- Every morning students will begin "Ready to Learn" and their personal choices throughout the day will cause them to either move up or down our color chart. Your child will mark the color they ended their day on in their planners. Please look at these marks and initial on them every night.
- Positive and Negative Consequences will result based on your child's personal choices and their final placement each day on this chart.

Planners

These will be given to your child during the first week of school!

Please make sure your child keeps track of their planner so we can help teach them organizational skills!

All homework will be written in these

I ask that a parent/guardian signs EVERY DAY!

Planner checks will be done for participation grades

INTERACTIVE Notebooks

- These notebooks hold A LOT of what we will be doing in class. (Notes, some work, and new, curriculum based, vocabulary)
- They should help your child stay organized and have everything in one spot for each subject.
- These can stay in the classroom when not in use, but will be exceptional study resources.

Volunteering

We love volunteers!! If you would like to help in the classroom or with any school event please let me know!

Also remember, you must go through an online safety training program to work with students within the school.

Contact Mrs. Mary for help with any of this!
